

EXPLORING SENSES IN NATURE

Can you find an example of all these textures in nature?

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> a smooth rock | <input type="checkbox"/> a sweet flower blossom |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a rough stick | <input type="checkbox"/> fresh cut grass |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a silky leaf | <input type="checkbox"/> old leaves |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a sharp pine needle | <input type="checkbox"/> pine needles |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a rough piece of bark | <input type="checkbox"/> smelly garbage |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a fluffy seed | <input type="checkbox"/> soft moss |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a spiky stem | <input type="checkbox"/> fresh water |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a soft flower petal | <input type="checkbox"/> a barbeque smell _____ |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a prickly seed | <input type="checkbox"/> an animal smell _____ |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a slimy worm | <input type="checkbox"/> a human smell _____ |

Tag us in your photos on Instagram!

@transcanadatrail

@oaklearners

@waterfront_rt

TRAIL
CARE

OakLearners.ca

Great Lakes
Waterfront Trail
A signature project of the Waterfront Regeneration Trust